

Welcome, Welcome, Sabbath Morning

Joyfully ♩ = 90-110

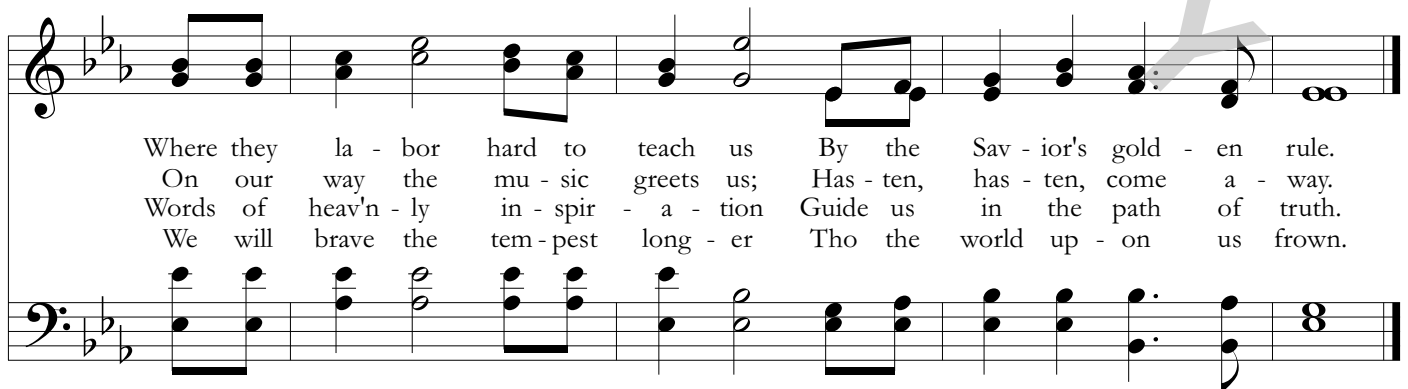

1. Wel - come, wel - come, Sab - bath morn - ing; Now we rest from ev' - ry care.
2. Hark! the Sab - bath bells are ring - ing; Hear the ech - oes all a - round.
3. Here we bow in meek de - vo - tion; Here we sing God's ho - ly praise.
4. Here we meet with friends and neigh - bors; Par - ents too are in the throng.

Wel - come, wel - come is thy dawn - ing, Ho - ly Sab - bath, day of prayer.
List! the mer - ry chil - dren sing - ing! What a pleas - ing, joy - ful sound!
Here our hearts, with fond e - mo - tion, Seek to learn his ho - ly ways.
We are ear - nest in our la - bors. To God's king - dom we be - long.

Lov - ing teach - ers kind - ly greet us As we meet in Sun - day School,
Ev' - ry ten - der note en - treats us, Bids us come, nor long - er stay.
From the books of rev - e - la - tion We are taught while yet in youth.
Tri - als make our faith grow strong - er; Truth is no - bler than a crown.

Where they la - bor hard to teach us By the Sav - ior's gold - en rule.
On our way the mu - sic greets us; Has - ten, has - ten, come a - way.
Words of heav'n - ly in - spir - a - tion Guide us in the path of truth.
We will brave the tem - pest long - er Tho the world up - on us frown.

Text: Robert B. Baird, 1855-1916
Music: William B. Bradbury, 1816-1868

BRADBURY
8 7 8 7 D